Genesis 15:1-12, 17-18;
Psalm 27;
Philippians 3:17-4:1;
Luke 13:31-35 or Luke
9:28-36, (37-43a)

"After these things the word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision, "Do not be afraid, Abram, I am your shield; your reward shall be very great." But Abram said, "O Lord GOD, what will you give me, for I continue childless, and the heir of my house is Eliezer of Damascus?" Genesis 15:1-2

God did not define Abram's "very great reward." For decades God, Jehovah blessed Abram with wealth and prestige, but he had no heir to inherit these riches. For Abram a "very great Reward" would be a son.

Some might say, "God knows all, even what I desire before I ask, so why bother to ask?" Perhaps, God merely wants conversation. After all relationship only grows through interaction. Surely, Lent is a marvelous season to deepen our conversation with God, discussing our heart's longings.

During this Lenten season, let our conversations with Abram's God made known in Jesus, include the people of Ukraine and Russia, particularly the children and the disenfranchised who suffer the most. Let us also talk to God about transforming the hearts of leaders wherever they are into ministers of God's love above greed.

Let the "very great reward" promised by God to Abram be peace in the world and in our hearts.

"Wait/hope for the LORD; be strong and let our hearts take courage; wait/hope for the LORD." Psalm 27:14,

Rev. Julia
