Second Sunday in Advent 2022, Love:

*Isaiah 11:1-10;
Psalm 72:1-7, 18-19;
Romans 15:4-13;
Matthew 3:1-12*

“May the God of steadfastness and encouragement grant you to live in harmony with one another, in accordance with Christ

Jesus that together you may with one voice glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Welcome one another, therefore, just as Christ has welcomed you, for the glory of God.” Romans 15:5-7

“The symbol of Christmas—what is it? It is the rainbow arched over the roof of the sky when the clouds are heavy with foreboding. It is the cry of life in the newborn baby when, forced from its mother’s nest, it claims its right to live. It is the brooding Presence of the Eternal Spirit making crooked paths straight, rough places smooth, tired hearts refreshed, dead hopes stirred with newness of life. It is the promise of tomorrow at the close of the day, the movement of life in defiance of death, and the assurance that LOVE is sturdier than hate, that right is more confident than wrong, that good is more permanent than evil.” Howard Thurman

O Come, O Come Emmanuel...

Into wounded places still remembered and heal them with LOVE.

Blessings, Rev. Julia
